We are delighted to introduce to the market this newly listed end-of-terrace residence, situated on a substantial plot within the desirable area of Los Balcones. This property showcases a generous garden, enhanced by established foliage and a striking yucca tree, with a sizable terrace located to the south of the house. The garage can be accessed via the side gate, providing secure and convenient parking facilities. Upon entering the premises through the front entrance, one is immediately greeted by a capacious living room, which is further illuminated by expansive windows that invite natural light to flood the space. Towards the rear of the ground floor, there is an open-plan American-style...(Ask for More Details!)
